I am a solo female traveler who love seeing the world and would like to share her view with others.

My name is Malak Abdalmaksoud, I am a solo female traveler who likes trying new things, living adventurous experiences, and learning new information everyday. I graduated from biomedical engineering and I worked as a process engineer in a manufacturing company where I was responsible for the process of building and manufacturing an arthroscope.

Zinzabar

Zanzibar is an island in the Indian Ocean. Arabs have the deepest influence on the island as Arabs specifically from Oman established colonies of merchants and landowners in Zinzabar and eventually became the aristocracy of the Islands. During 1650, Oman established control over Zinzabar, then after a while Oman decided to relocate its capital to Zinzabar. In 1861, Zinzabar was separated from Oman and became independent sultanate, then became part of the united republic of Tanzania in 1964.

Oman showed a great influence on the city, it influenced the traditions of the people, the architecture, and even the food.

In the past few years, it has become one of the most popular tourist attractions because of its natural beauty and ocean views.

Hagia Sophia

Hagia Sophia is a mosque that was originally built as a Christian basilica nearly 1,500 years ago. It anchors the old city of Istanbul and has served for centuries for Christians and the Muslim community. The first religious service in the "new" Hagia Sophia was held in 537 during the time of Emperor Justinian.

Hagia Sophia has a remarkable structure and it is one of the most tourist attractions not only in Turkey but also in the world. The marble used for the floor and ceiling was produced in Anatolia which is Syria and east Turkey now, and it has 104 columns that were imported from the Temple of Artemis in Ephesus and from Egypt.
